DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

The election/restriction of record is maintained.

Claims 40, 41, 55, 56, 60-62, 65, 67 are withdrawn from further consideration as being drawn to non-elected subject matter.

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 38, 39, 42-54, 57-59, 63, 64 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

There is still no support in the specification for the ranges of sperm cells claimed. Applicant has not addressed this rejection but it is still valid. There is no support for limitations such as, "to at least about 5 million per milliliter to at least about 10 million per milliliter of extender", "equine sperm cells between about 1,000,000 million and about 25,000,000".

The time limitation still has no support. In fact, as applicant noted, they have support for 1-18 hours, which clearly is more than 6 hours.

There is no support for "without the presence of protective compounds in seminal plasma". Nowhere can such support be found. Applicant has not stated where the support is in the specification, and the examiner can find no such support.

Claims 38, 39, 42-54, 57-59, 63, 64 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 63 and 64 are still confusing. The way the applicant has now amended the claims is confusing since it is not clear how the "at least some of said sex selected sperm cells" can be not frozen as in claims 63 and 64 and indeed frozen in the main claim, claim 38. If claim 38 requires that the "at least some of said sex selected sperms cells" are to be frozen then claims 63 and claim 64 fail to further limit claim 38.

It is not clear what is meant by, "without the presence of protective compounds in seminal plasma". What protective compounds ? What seminal plasma ?

Further, what is meant by , "to at least about 5 million per milliliter to at least about 10 million per milliliter of extender" ? Is this the concentration of the extender before it is applied to the sperm cells ? Is the 5 million referring to the number of sperm cells. So how much extender is added to each sperm cell ?

Further, the method of claim 38 is confusing because the preamble states that the method is a method of freezing and the end product of the process is thawed out.

It is also confusing how in step d) at least some of said sex-selected sperm cells are isolated to create a collection of sperm cells. In step b) the sperm cells were isolated when they were sorted. What is the difference ? Further, in step e) it is not clear which "said isolated sex-selected sperm cells" are being claimed. Is it the "at least some of said sex-selected" sperm cells from the beginning of step d) or the collection formed in the second part of step d) ? Further, in step c) what is meant by cooled ? Were they hot to begin with ?

Claim 42 has no antecedant basis for "said male mammal".

Claims 63 and 64 are confusing. First there is no antecedant basis for "the step of equilibrating at least some of said sex-selected sperm cells". What step is this ? Second, what temperature is cooler ? Cooler than what ? This is relative and subjective. There is no point of reference for one to compare it to.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claims 38, 39, 42-54, 57-59, 63, 64 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Salisbury et al. in view of Spaulding and Shrimpton.

Art Unit: 1654

The newly amended claims still are obvious over the cited prior art of record.

Applicant's limitation in claim 38 of "sorting said sperm cells, without the presence of protective compounds in seminal plasma" is met since the references never do this.

Applicant has provided no arguments concerning this amendment or support from the specification to support such an amendment. The references are clear about their teachings which are of record.
